- Wensum Trust
John Smith and Daniel Thrower from Wensum Trust provided a verbal report to the Parish Council on the current position of the Trust. There are now 11 academies with over 900 staff and 4276 student's ages from 3 to 18 years. The trust are keen to form partnerships with other organizations within Norfolk, this allows the trust to help children thrive in what they do best. Questions were asked by the councilors, Cllr Gurney spoke with regards to the Trust attending the local SNAP meeting, and Daniel Thrower agreed he would attend the next one scheduled. Cllr Fulcher and Cllr Bush-Trivett both ask questions relating to high school students and how the trust are working with them on topics such as mental health and having a voice in the community.

5. Public Participation

A member of the public spoke with regards to 20mph speed limit on Meadow Way and adjoining roads, Cllr Gurney updated the resident and fellow councilors on the recent meeting with herself, the clerk and Helledsons highway's engineer Ben Rayner. An assessment is currently being done by Norfolk County Council Highways on the suitability of the area for a 20mph speed limit. Unfortunately this is a lengthy process and the end decision is made by Norfolk County Council. The clerk will chase the local school with regards to shutting the rear access gate for a trial period to assess whether this will make any difference to traffic.

Cllr Gurney had also arranged with Norfolk Highways to have wooden bollards put in the verge of Meadow Way and Windsor Road.

6. Report from Police to include Parish Crime Figures
